City of Big Bear Lake

Finance Division

Dear Business Owner:

The City of Big Bear Lake would like to take this opportunity to provide all of our Transient Occupancy Tax (TOT) and Big Bear Lake Tourism Business Improvement District (BBLTBID) Remitters with a few answers to some frequently asked questions:

- ❖ TOT and BBLTBID are to be charged for the right and privilege of occupancy of the room or home whether the consideration is received in money, goods, labor, or otherwise. The current TOT rate is 8% of gross short-term room rental revenue. The current BBLTBID rate is 3% of gross short-term room rental on contracts executed on or after April 1, 2016.
- ❖ TOT and BBLTBID remittance due dates and deadlines will be noted on all of the City's remittance slips or payment notification letters. If the City of Big Bear Lake does not receive your TOT or BBLTBID payments by the dates indicated in our correspondence, penalties and interest will apply.
- ❖ The City of Big Bear Lake's TOT must be separate from any other line items on the customer's receipt. If you choose to pass the BBLTBID assessment on to the customer, the BBLTBID assessment must also be separate from any other line items on the customer's receipt.
- ❖ The following is a list of fees, by the way of example, that must be included in the gross receipts and are therefore subject to TOT and BBLTBID. This is not meant to be a comprehensive list, please contact the Finance Department if you have questions regarding any nonrefundable, nondiscretionary fees that your establishment may be charging.

Booking Fees	Reservation Fees	Administration Fees
Management Fees	Pet Deposits/Fees	Nonrefundable Deposits
Cleaning Fees	Linen Fees	Credit Card Usage Fees
Damage Waiver Fees	Maid Fees	Utility Fees/Surcharges
Spa Fees (if charged without option to all transients)

All TOT and BBLTBID registrants are encouraged to contact the Finance Department at (909) 866-5831 if you feel further clarification is needed.

TRANSIENT PRIVATE HOME RENTAL

“NEW BUSINESS LICENSE ADVISORY NOTICE – AUGUST 1, 2017”

As of January 20, 2017, In-Person Check-in Agent and 24/7 Complaint Response Agent acting on behalf of a Transient Private Home Rental (TPHR) managing agency/owner manager were required to submit notarized affidavits personally acknowledging their agreement to act as an agent in one or both of these capacities. Additionally, the agent submitting the affidavit acknowledges that they will obtain City of Big Bear Lake certification as an In-Person Check-in Agent and/or 24/7 Complaint Response Agent within 90 days of submittal of the notarized affidavit.

Effective immediately, all new business license application submittals by a TPHR managing agency or owner manager shall include a copy of the notarized affidavit for their In-Person Check-In Agent(s) and their 24/7 Complaint Response Agent(s). A new business license application will not be accepted for processing without these affidavits.

The Code Compliance Division will validate compliance with agent certification requirements during the business license review process. Failure of a Check-in and/or Response agent to obtain City certification within ninety (90) days of their affidavit submittal may result in the suspension of the management agency or owner manager business license and authorization for rental activities at the TPHR unit(s) they represent.

If you have any questions or require additional information regarding this matter, please contact the Code Compliance Division at (909) 866-5831. Policies, documents and forms pertaining to this and other TPHR matters may be viewed and downloaded from the City’s website at <http://www.citybigbearlake.com/index.php/city-departments/code-compliance>

CODE COMPLIANCE DIVISION
POLICY & PROCEDURE MANUAL

Effective Date: October 20, 2016

Subject: IN-PERSON CHECK-IN AND 24/7 RESPONSE PERSONNEL TRAINING CERTIFICATION AND RESPONSIBILITY ACKNOWLEDGEMENT REQUIREMENTS FOR TRANSIENT PRIVATE HOME RENTAL AGENCIES AND OWNER-MANAGERS

PURPOSE

The Code Compliance Division is responsible for ensuring that Transient Private Home Rental (TPHR) managing agencies and individual TPHR unit owner-managers are in compliance with the in-person check-in and 24/7 complaint response requirements contained in City Ordinance No. 2007-375. This policy identifies training and certification and responsibility acknowledgement requirements that will be followed to ensure that management agency and owner-manager personnel personally acknowledge that they are assuming responsibility for providing compliant in-person check-in and/or 24/7 complaint response; and, that these individuals have received training specific to the proper performance of in-person check-in and/or 24/7 complaint response as required by City Ordinance No. 2007-375.

PROCEDURE

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RESPONSIBILITY

1. Within ninety (90) days of the effective date of this policy and procedure, every TPHR management agency and owner-manager of a TPHR unit registered in the City's TPHR program as of the effective date of this policy and procedure, shall submit to the Code Compliance Division an "Acknowledgement of Responsibility" (sample of acknowledgements attached) for each individual responsible for in-person check-in and 24/7 complaint response for the TPHR units they have registered. The "Acknowledgement of Responsibility" shall be fully executed by the individual responsible for performing in-person check-in and/or 24/7 complaint response and shall be notarized. In lieu of a notary attachment, the individual executing the "Acknowledgement of Responsibility" may appear personally at the City and present for inspection by a Code Compliance Division staff member, a current California drivers license, California ID card or other legally recognized form of personal identity verification.
2. Within ninety (90) days of the submittal of a registration application for a new TPHR unit by an owner-manager, the owner-manager shall submit to the Code Compliance Division an "Acknowledgement of Responsibility" (sample of acknowledgements attached) for each individual responsible for in-person check-in and 24/7 complaint response for the TPHR units they have registered. The “Acknowledgement of Responsibility” shall be fully executed by the individual responsible for performing in-person check-in and/or 24/7 complaint response and shall be notarized. In lieu of a notary attachment, the individual executing the “Acknowledgement of Responsibility” may appear personally at the City and present for inspection by a Code Compliance Division staff member, a current California drivers license, California ID card or other legally recognized form of personal identity verification.

3. Within ninety (90) days of the submittal of the first registration application for a TPHR unit being represented by a new TPHR management agency, the new TPHR agency shall submit to the Code Compliance Division an “Acknowledgement of Responsibility” (sample of acknowledgements attached) for each individual responsible for in-person check-in and 24/7 complaint response for the TPHR units they have registered. The “Acknowledgement of Responsibility” shall be fully executed by the individual responsible for performing in-person check-in and/or 24/7 complaint response and shall be notarized. In lieu of a notary attachment, the individual executing the “Acknowledgement of Responsibility” may appear personally at the City and present for inspection by a Code Compliance Division staff member, a current California drivers license, California ID card or other legally recognized form of personal identity verification.
4. TPHR management agencies and TPHR owner-managers are responsible for immediately notifying the City’s Code Compliance Division of changes to their identified in-person check-in personnel and/or 24/7 complaint response personnel. An “Acknowledgement of Responsibility” for each newly identified in-person check-in and/or 24/7 complaint response individual shall be submitted to the City at the time of notification of the change. All rental activity shall be immediately discontinued at a TPHR unit that is not provided with in-person check-in and/or 24/7 response personnel recognized by the City. Such rental activity shall not be recommenced until full compliance with this Section is attained.

IN-PERSON CHECK-IN AND 24/7 RESONSE PERSONNEL TRAINING AND CERTIFICATION

1. Within ninety (90) days of the effective date of this policy and procedure, every TPHR management agency and owner-manager of a TPHR unit registered in the City’s TPHR program as of the effective date of this policy and procedure, shall be responsible for ensuring that each individual responsible for in-person check-in and 24/7 complaint response for their TPHR unit(s) have attended and received a valid “Certification of Attendance” at a City conducted training session. The City will be responsible for conducting training sessions on a quarterly basis each year. Individuals participating in a City training session pertaining to in-person check-in or 24/7 complaint response and shall provide the information requested on a “sign-in sheet” provided by the City prior to the commencement of the training session; and, shall present for inspection by a Code Compliance Division staff member, a current California drivers license, California ID card or other legally recognized form of personal identity verification.

2. Within ninety (90) days of the submittal of a new TPHR registration application by an owner-manager of a TPHR unit, the owner-manager shall be responsible for ensuring that each individual responsible for in-person check-in and 24/7 complaint response for their TPHR unit(s) have attended and received a valid “Certification of Attendance” at a City conducted training session. The City will be responsible for conducting training sessions on a quarterly basis each year. Individuals participating in a City training session pertaining to in-person check-in or 24/7 complaint response and shall provide the information requested on a “sign-in sheet” provided by the City prior to the commencement of the training session; and, shall present for inspection by a Code Compliance Division staff member, a current California drivers license, California ID card or other legally recognized form of personal identity verification.
3. Within ninety (90) days of the submittal of the first TPHR registration application by a new TPHR management agency, the management agency shall be responsible for ensuring that each individual responsible for in-person check-in and 24/7 complaint response for their TPHR unit(s) have attended and received a valid “Certification of Attendance” at a City conducted training session. The City will be responsible for conducting training sessions on a quarterly basis each year. Individuals participating in a City training session pertaining to in-person check-in or 24/7 complaint response and shall provide the information requested on a “sign-in sheet” provided by the City prior to the commencement of the training session; and, shall present for inspection by a Code Compliance Division staff member, a current California drivers license, California ID card or other legally recognized form of personal identity verification.
4. TPHR management agencies and TPHR owner-managers are responsible for immediately notifying the City’s Code Compliance Division of changes to their identified in-person check-in personnel and/or 24/7 complaint response personnel. Newly identified in-person check-in and/or 24/7 complaint response personnel shall attend a City conducted training session within 90 days of the date of the execution of their “Acknowledgement of Responsibility”.

Questions regarding the application or meaning of any portion of this policy shall be directed to the Director of Community Services for response.
