Mayor Pro Tem Jahn Accepted in to the California Civic Leadership Institute

BIG BEAR LAKE, CA – Out of approximately 25 local leaders selected to participate, Mayor Pro Tem Bill Jahn has been accepted in to the California Civic Leadership Institute (CCLI), a program presented by the League Partners Program through the League of California Cities. The CCLI is a premier 'training camp' to bring together local elected officials seeking statewide involvement to discuss long term policy issues facing California.

Ongoing goals of the CCLI are: 1) To prepare up to 25 local leaders a year to have a broad, in-depth understanding of some of the critical issues facing California in the next 25 years; and 2) To give these leaders some of the tools they will need to succeed should they progress in to the State Legislature in the future.

Mayor Pro Tem Jahn will begin attending institute sessions this July. The Institute wraps up in September. For more information on the CCLI, please contact the League of California Cities at (916) 658-8200 or visit them at www.cacities.org
